

2018 DOMAINE CORNE-LOUP Lirac Blanc

France – Rhône Valley – Lirac AOC

ABOUT DOMAINE CORNE-LOUP

The Lafond family purchased 3 hectares in Tavel in 1966. Today, Jacques Lafond runs the winery with help from his daughter & winemaker, Géraldine Saunier. Their vineyards now cover 42 hectares (in Tavel, Lirac and Côtes-du-Rhône), with an annual production around 20,000 9-liter cases.

"Corne Loup" is the name given to this part of the Tavel village, where, in olden times, someone would blow the horn ("corne") in order to warn others of a sighting of a wolf ("loup") coming into town.

ABOUT THE WINE

Corne Loup's Lirac Blanc comes from a small parcel, only 1.23 acres. This blend of Grenache Blanc, Viognier and Marsanne is a brilliant light yellow, with fine floral aromas. Fruity, fat and ample with a fresh long finish.
