

PATRICIA RAQUIN

BOURGOGNE

— CHARDONNAY —

The grapes are sourced in the Maconnais region that benefits from a slightly warmer climate and brings out tropical aromas, elegance and freshness to the wine.

The animals shown on the label are dogs, from the breed called Borzoi, or "Russian Wolfhound", which means "fast" in Russian. Patricia and Alain Corcia are the proud owners of 2 Borzois and they designed the label to represent the dogs as the guardians of the vaulted ageing cellar inside their house.

KYSELA PERE et FILS, LTD.