

Stéphane Marchand

SANCERRE

The grapes are organically grown and come from parcels located in Amigny, a hamlet just South of Chavignol. The complexity and balance of this round and ample wine are linked to the mosaic of Sancerre terroirs that bring a fresh, lively and fruity character, richness, power, and typical minerality. Medium acidity and freshness bring out attractive peach and citrus fruits.

KYSELA PERE et FILS, LTD.