JEB DUNNUCK

"Mostly Roussanne (there's just 15% Vermentino), the 2017 Roussanne-Vermentino is a fresh, vibrant white that over-delivers at the price, giving up lots of citrus, lemon, and minty notes in a medium-bodied package. It has a touch of minerality, fleshes out nicely with time in the glass, and is an outstanding white to enjoy over the coming year or two."
