"This is a dense, serious red with dried-strawberry, orange-peel and walnut character on the nose and palate. Full body and firm, chewy tannins that are polished and refined at the same time. This needs time to soften, but I like the sleek, linear path in the center palate."

"Aromas of scorched earth, camphor, grilled herb and leather lead the nose, along with a whiff of iris. The tightly knit, rather austere palate offers dried cherry, cassis, star anise and a hint of game set against assertive, close-grained tannins that grip the close. - Kerin O'Keefe"
