"Wow, the 2017 Côtes de Gascogne Blanc offers a smoking good bouquet of peach, ripe citrus, and exotic lemon notes. This flows to a medium-bodied, vibrant, racy white that's beautifully balanced, layered, and certainly delicious. The blend is 80% Colombard and 10% each of Ugni Blanc and Gros Manseng, brought up all in stainless steel. It's a stunning white and an awesome value."
