

The Royal Chenin Blanc

Riebeek Cellars

South Africa - Western Cape - Coastal Region - Swartland

The Royal, Chenin Blanc borrows its name from a grand old hotel in Riebeek Kasteel. It is the oldest hotel in the Western Cape; a beloved fixture of the area.

As the unofficial drink of the Riebeek Valley, Chenin Blanc is the perfect every day wine that offers uncomplicated quality for the novice and connoisseur alike. Packed with upfront melon fruit, the nose charms with an abundance of guava and gooseberries as well as the signature hint of honey. The palate follows through with fruit flavors balanced by a crisp acidity to ensure a fresh and fruity style of wine.

Specifications
Appellation	Coastal Region - Swartland
Varietals	Chenin Blanc
Agricultural Practices	Sustainable
Vinification	After settling and acid adjustment of only the free-run juice, selected yeast was used for fermentation which was colder than usual to capture upfront fruit flavors. Two specially selected tanks were blended and stored on the fine lees to preserve freshness.
Pairings	Enjoy well-chilled as a lovely crisp glass on its own, or ideal for al fresco dining and with light summer fare. Beautiful with salads, anti pasti and seafood.
