

Arzuaga Ribera del Duero La Planta

Bodegas Arzuaga

Spain - Castilla y Leon - Ribera del Duero

Deep violet red. Clean and bright with a range of red fruits (raspberry and cherry) that dominate with a high aromatic intensity, joined by balsamic, cacao, coffee, and roasted tones. Fresh, elegant, easy, and balanced in the mouth with a lightly sweet, toasted, and pleasant aftertaste.

Specifications

Appellation	Ribera del Duero
Varietals	100% Tempranillo
Soil type	Clay & Limestone
Vinification	Grapes were picked by hand at their optimum ripeness. Bunches were brought to the winery in plastic crates and sorted at a sorting table. After destemming, grapes were pumped into stainless-steel vats where they macerated at a cool temperature and the alcoholic fermentation took place at 22-24°C. Once the fermentation was finished, the wine was aged for six months in French and American oak barrels.
Production	115,000 (9-liter cases)
Pairings	Fried fish, sausage, and white meats such as roasted poultry.
