

Chateau de Brizé

France - Loire Valley

Founded in 1755 by the Delhumeau family, the "Domaine de Brizé" has built a fine reputation over time thanks to the work of the different generations that have succeeded. Now, Matthieu DUPONT takes up the torch of this beautiful family history and magnificent estate with extraordinary potential.

In January 2024, Matthieu changed the name from "Domaine de Brizé" to "Château de Brizé".

- They have a total of 36 hectares:
- Chenin: 12.3 hectares
 - Grolleau: 2.75 hectares
 - Chardonnay: 2.36 hectares
 - Cabernet Franc: 8.63 hectares
 - Cabernet Sauvignon: 4.13 hectares
 - Sauvignon Blanc: 1.44 hectares
 - Pinot Noir: 0.47 hectares
 - Gamay: 2.36 hectares

Founded
1755
Wine Production Area
France - Loire Valley - Anjou, Anjou-Villages, Coteaux du Layon, Rosé d'Anjou
Owners
Eloise & Matthieu Dupont
Winemaker
Matthieu DUPONT
Grape Varietals
CHENIN : 12,3 hectares / GROLLEAU : 2,75 Hectares / CHARDONNAY : 2,36 hectares CABERNET FRANC : 8,63 hectares / CABERNET SAUVIGNON : 4,13HA / SAUVIGNON BLANC : 1,44 HA / PINOT NOIR : 0,47HA / GAMAY : 2,36 HA
Website