Sump combines an Imperial Stout of substantial weight with bright and delicate Colombian Los Pinos Coffee, selected and roasted especially for us by Sump Coffee. Aromas of coffee, salted caramel, and a hint of cedar meld with roasted barley, cocoa, and vanilla. On the palate the vanilla is more prominent, rounding out the beer's heavy roast and chocolate character. It's thick and lush with a long finish and lingering warmth. Pair with a rich chocolate ganache or bacon and eggs.
