

BONNY DOON VINEYARD

OLD TELEGRAM

MATARO

The nose of this dark red wine shows pepper, tobacco, anise and some beef jerky amid the riot of dark fruit.

After a sniff, the heft is expected.

With a sip, it is delivered.

The wine has great acidity and firm tannic structure. The fruit does come on strong - big, dark shades of black plums and blackberries. There is a rather large licorice play, too, and some tarry meat figures in - especially on the finish. A singing telegram.
