ABOUT CHAKANA

Chakana Winery is located 3,149 feet above sea level at the foothills of the Andes Mountains in Agrelo, Mendoza. It is one of the leading projects among the new generation of winemakers dedicated to the discovery and expression of the Andean diversity of climate and soils. Chakana, who is certified biodynamic, owns 120 hectares of vineyards, spread across sites in Lujan de Cuyo and Valle de Uco.

ABOUT THE WINE

The Nuna vineyard (3,150 ft. elevation) in Agrelo is Chakana's first Demeter certified organic vineyard. 'Nuna' is a Quechuan word meaning "soul of the land."

This wine is the result of Chakana's soil studies of their Nuna vineyard. The name 'Tetrada' represents the four 4 red varieties planted on this same soil profile.

The soil profile shows great texture and finesse. Tannat and Cabernet Franc create structure and deepness, while Syrah and Malbec provide fruity flavors and roundness. The result is a balanced wine with nice texture; flavors of blueberries and elderberries; powerful and fleshy with a solid tannic base, but no hint of hardness.
