JEB DUNNUCK

"Made all from Malbec brought up in tank (no oak), the 2015 Cahors Maintenant offers plenty of black and blue fruits as well as peppery herbs to go with a medium-bodied, rounded, nicely textured style on the palate. It has terrific purity of fruit, ample Malbec character, and a great finish. The Cahors region has just about fallen off the map recently, but this would be a great introduction for readers wanting to taste the wines of the region."
