Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

"What looks to be a smokin' good wine, the 2015 Vacqueyras dishes up tons of smoked herbs, licorice, spice and ripe dark fruits in a rounded, impressively textured style. Made from 70% Grenache, 25% Syrah and a splash of Mourvèdre, mostly destemmed and aged in concrete (there's a small part in foudre), it should provide tons of pleasure over the coming decade. - Jeb Dunnuck"
