

Finca Las Divas

Argentina -

Finca Las Divas is a single vineyard, family-owned winery located in Gualtallary, Uco Valley, where each plot is named after a famous diva to honor them and the amazing terroir and different soil types found in the same vineyard. WHT makes reference to the investors last names: Werthein and Hernández Toso.

Fourth generation of family winemakers with 135 years of history in winemaking. Pascual Toso was a pioneer of winemaking in Argentina and was the great grandfather of José Hernández Toso who kept with the legacy of his family.

Vineyards are planted at 4,265 feet above sea level in Tupungato, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina.

Founded

2003

Wine Production Area

Argentina - -

Owners

Hernández Toso and Werthein Family

Winemaker

José Hernandez Toso

Grape Varietals

Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Petit Verdot, Bonarda, Tannat, Marselán, Riesling

Annual Production

84,000

Website

/www.rigloswines.com/en/las-divas