

Jean Arthaud

France - Burgundy

Jean Arthaud wines and liqueurs are produced in Southern Burgundy's Charnay-Les-Macon, between the Beaujolais Crus and Pouilly Fuissé. Nearly a century old, the winery & distillery was founded in 1928 by Henri Claudius Trenel (the third generation of Trenels is involved today). Their top quality Beaujolais Crus, Mâconnais wine and Bourgogne fruit liqueurs have garnered a respected reputation throughout France and abroad. Their style is guided by 3 principles: exceptional fruit concentrations, long macerations & limited sugar dosage. The Jean Arthaud liqueurs are both Bourgogne IGP (Indication Géographique Protégée), meaning they can only be produced in Burgundy with fruits grown in Burgundy.

Location
France
Wine Production Area
France - Burgundy -
Website