

Long Shadows Julia's Dazzle Rose

Long Shadows Vintners

United States - Washington - Walla Walla Valley

Julia's Dazzle Rosé was developed by Long Shadows Vintners founder, Allen Shoup, and named after his granddaughter Julia. Winemaker Gilles Nicault crafts this limited production Rosé having developed his winemaking skills in Provence, the world leader in Rosé.

Fresh and lively with bright aromas and flavors of orange blossoms, strawberries and ripe melon complemented by a racy acidity that lingers across a clean finish.

Specifications

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| Appellation | Walla Walla Valley |
| Varietals | 98% Pinot Grigio + 2% Sangiovese |
| Vinification | Pinot Gris grapes from select Columbia Valley vineyards were left to hang until they developed a bright tint, then gently pressed and the clarified juice slowly fermented at cool temperatures to retain its intensely vibrant aromatics and flavors. |
| Pairings | Serve it chilled with light dishes or as an aperitif. |
