

O Tempranillo Calatayud

Bodega San Gregorio (Tres Ojos)

Spain - Aragon - Calatayud

High altitude Tempranillo wine, from old dry-land vineyards, standing glass, aged between 40 and 50 years. The vineyard is located in the town of Cervera de la Cañada, on the banks of the Ribota river. The different vineyard plots are distributed between the Ribota and Manubles valleys that surround the Sierra de Armantes, where we find the plot.

“O” stands for Origin. Its circular design represents the natural cycle of the vine, while the overlapping rings evoke old vines and the layers of soil, altitude, climate and time that shape our Tempranillo. It is a distinctive expression of its origin in Calatayud.

Cherry red color, high robe with purple hues. On the nose it is intense and complex, with black fruits, ripe cherries, blackberries, blueberries and noble woods stand out.
