

Pago de los Capellanes Ribera del Duero Un Sueno en Las Alturas

Pago de los Capellanes

Spain - Castilla y Leon - Ribera del Duero

In the highlands of the extreme south of the Ribera del Duero, we open the horizon to a wine with the freshness and special energy that altitude brings.

A mosaic of old vines on the rugged slopes and hills. A unique geography, with reddish soils and ancient geology. An environment of rich biodiversity. And a path of enthusiasm, work and respect for the traditional viticulture of three towns at the foot of the Serrezuela, on the edge of the Designation of Origin: Fuentenebro, Pardilla and Honrubia de la Cuesta.

From this unique sum, so rooted in the natural virtues of the area, a wine of finesse and mineral character is born. A unique look at an unforgettable territory and landscape, which we express in the purity and aerial identity of A "Dream in the Heights" ("Sueno en las alturas" in Spanish).
