

Praia Vinho Verde Rose

Quinta da Aveleda (Praia)

Portugal - Vinho Verde

Praia means "beach" in Portuguese.

The wine shows a refined fresh pink color and a clear appearance. The fruity style is enhanced by notes of raspberries and strawberries. It is well balanced on the palate presenting a crispy acidity that highlights the wine's great freshness. The after-taste is harmonious, showing a soft persistence.

The region is typical for its unique wines that are fresh and light, combined with a very well balanced acidity. These characteristics result from the region's unique soil and climate, with a strong Atlantic influence that you will identify when you taste it.

Specifications

Varietals	25% Vinho, 50% Espadeiro Tinto, 25% Borrasal.
Soil type	granite & sand
Vinification	Grapes are pressed at low pressures. The must is clarified, following the alcoholic fermentation at controlled temperatures. Before bottling, the wine is filtered and cold stabilized. No oak.
Pairings	Praia Rose is ideal as an appetizer and served with typical Italian recipes, light salads or starters. For its freshness, it is particularly pleasant in a relaxed and informal atmosphere.

