

Bodegas Fernando Castro

Spain -

Alma de Vida is made by Bodegas Fernando Castro.

Bodegas Fernando Castro was founded in 1850 and is the oldest winery in Castilla - La Mancha under the direction of the same family. The Castro family began making white and red wines from grapes grown on their own property in Santa Cruz de Mudela, following the traditional methods of the area.

Since 1895, Bodegas Fernando Castro has been present in the most important points of the national territory, gaining the trust of the large purchasing centers, guaranteeing that its products are at the forefront in terms of quality and efficiency in service.

With an unbeatable geographical location, being in the center of Spain, their products reach any point in the country, which has facilitated the expansion of their market to more than 80 countries on 5 continents where they currently export.

Currently, two generations of the Castro family work together, with the invaluable support of great professionals who contribute to the production, elaboration, ageing and marketing of their wines, with modern, comfortable and functional facilities.

Founded

1850

Wine Production Area

Spain - -

Owners

Fernando CASTRO ALCARAZO

Winemaker

Manuel DELGADO

Grape Varietals

Airen, Tempranillo, Macabeo, Verdejo, Chardonnay, Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon ...

Annual Production

3.33 Million cases

Website

www.bodegasfernandocastro.com/en