

Chartron et Trebuchet Rully La Chaume

Maison Chartron et Trebuchet

France - Burgundy - Rully

The village of Rully is situated in the Cote Chalonnaise North West of Chalon-sur-Saône. The parcel "La Chaume" is located South of the village.

The vineyards are facing South and located between 300 and 350 meters above sea level. Average age of the vines is 35 years. The vines are cultivated using integrated viticulture.

Planting: 10,000 vines / hectare. Yield: 55 hectoliters / hectare.

A subsoil of clay and limestone is covered by a very stony top soil.

Golden yellow color with green highlights. The wine is a pure expression of the Cote Chalonnaise: minerality with chalky notes, freshness with a great acidity holding together the finish, elegance with orange blossom and hawthorn notes.
