

Riebeek Cape Ruby Port

Riebeek Cellars

South Africa - Western Cape - Coastal Region - Swartland

The bright, dark Riebeek Cape Ruby is a fortified wine, made in the style of a ruby port, primarily from Tourig. The flavors are opulent with ripe fruit, chocolate and interesting nuances of spice on the nose and a palate that follows through smoothly with a lingering aftertaste.

Available in gift sets (1 bottle + 2 glasses)

| Specifications | |
|----------------|--|
| Appellation | Coastal Region - Swartland |
| Varietals | 85% Touriga Nacional and 15% Shiraz |
| Vinification | Cold-soaked overnight, then inoculated with selected yeast. Wine was pumped over with force to get enough extraction; at 12 degrees C. The wine was racked from the skins and fortified with a mixture of wine and brandy spirits. New vintage Port wine is blended with older vintage Port wine and matured in 300 litre older French barrels. 50% aged in small barrels for two years. |
