

Shirley & David Maudry

France - Loire Valley

In 1982 willing to change his former agriculture activity, Patrick MAUDRY decided to make his dream and Passion for the wine concret. He started in purchasing and cultivating 80 ares of Pouilly-Fumé only. David MAUDRY, the youngest son of the family and his partner Shirley, joined the Domaine in 2009 after completing studies and experiences in the vineyards and the winemaking.

David and his partner Shirley have taken over the family estate and work closely together to craft outstanding Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir from the Centre Loire appellations, renowned for the exceptional richness and precision of their aromatic expression.
