

Couvreur Single Malt Clearach 43%

Michel Couvreur

France - Burgundy - Bouze-Les-Beaune

"Clearach is the term that Michel Couvreur gives to his malt spirit that cannot legally be called whisky until it is 3 years old. "

This is a Single Malt distilled in Scotland, matured in Sherry casks. 43% alcohol.

It is unfiltered and very young with typical almonds and frangipane (red jasmine) fragrances, nice grassy freshness with a slight touch of honey. Lively in the mouth, silky and elegant. Serve chilled.
