JEB DUNNUCK

"An interesting blend of 40% Cabernet Franc, 40% Gamay, and 20% Pinot Noir, the 2019 Le Rosé offers a lighter pink/ruby hue as well as a pretty bouquet of watermelon, cherries, and white flowers. Quite elegant and complex, it has medium-bodied richness on the palate, nicely integrated acidity, and a clean, dry finish. It's more than a simple rosé and grows on you with time in the glass. It's going to shine on the dinner table (or with tapas) over the coming summer months."
