"The 2019 Malbec Monteagrello is a blend of grapes from the Uco Valley and Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza and was aged for 10 months in French vats. Garnet red in the glass, the nose offers notes of ripe plum and oak with hints of biscuit and pepper. Slick and broad, the voluminous flow brings gentle tannins and freshness. It's creamy at the back of the mouth with hints of fruit.

"Lots of ripe blackberries and black cherries with hints of herbs, walnuts and licorice. Medium-bodied with juicy and savory character, fine tannins and a velvety texture. Easy to drink with a rich, fruity finish.
Drink or hold."
