

CHAKANA

ESTATE SELECTION

TORRONTES

2019

94 PTS

Tim
Atkin MW

"Right up there with my favourite orange wines in Argentina, this is a Torrontés that spent eight months on its skins but is so well made that it didn't extract excessive bitterness from a grape that has tannin to spare. Egg-fermented and aged in old wood, it's a salty, assertive, grippy white with quince and orange zest flavours and a refreshing, low-alcohol finish. 2020-24"

KYSELA PERE et FILS, LTD.