WINE ENTHUSIAST

"This rich, balanced wine is ripe and juicy. With layers of black fruits and well-integrated tannins, it has a dense texture while also packing a punch of great fruitiness. The fruit and tannins are ripe. This wine will develop well. Drink from 2021."

JEB DUNNUCK

"Offering a Graves-like style in its smoked earth, dark fruits, coffee grind, and earthy, tobacco-laced aromas and flavors, the 2015 Chateau La Graviere Les Terrasses Cotes de Bourg is medium to full-bodied, has a fleshy, rounded, sexy texture, and a great finish. It's another gem from the 2015 vintage that over-delivers. Drink it any time over the coming 7-8 years."
