Fenocchio Roero Arneis

Azienda Agricola Giacomo Fenocchio

Italy – Piemonte – Roero Arneis DOCG

ABOUT THE WINERY

Founded in 1864, Fenocchio is a 12-hectare estate that has been handed down for over five generations. The winery truly emerged under Giacomo Fenocchio, and is run today by his three sons, Claudio, Albino & Alberto.

The Fenocchio family has two of the most prestigious vineyard sites in Barolo, Cannubi & Bussia. Their Cannubi vineyard was purchased by the family in the late 1800's & is considered to be among the finest. Their Bussia vineyard, in the family since 1867, is known for its powerful & structured wines.

ABOUT THE WINE

Fenocchio's Arneis from the historical Roero zone is has a creamy texture with delightful tropical fruit, floral & chamomile notes. The flavor is pleasantly tangy, full and very persistent. It has a minerality that only the Roero gives and a long, persistent finish.
