

Gundian Albarino Rias Baixas

Adega Valdes

Spain - Galicia - Rias Baixas

Gundián is a local surname & the name of several Galician villages (3 in the area) as well as a famous bridge in Galicia - thus the bridge graphic on the label. The Gundián Bridge, also known as the Gundián Viaduct, is a bridge that spans the Ulla river pass, on the old railway line between Orense and Santiago de Compostela.

Clean and bright wine, straw yellow color with greenish flashes. On the nose, it has intense floral and fruity aromas of apple and stone fruits (apricot). In the mouth, the freshness and youth of the Albariño stand out with a well balanced acidity, a fresh and fruity finish.
