

Ketran Red Blend

Vina Siegel

Chile - Colchagua Valley

Ketran comes from the Mapuche language, meaning "plowed earth" - specifically, Earth plowed by fire from volcanic activity. Ketran is a tribute to the volcanic soils that gave birth to the fantastic terroir of Los Lingues, located at the foothills of the "Cordillera de los Andes".

Clean and bright in color. Aromatic and elegant nose of ripe black fruit, prune and dried fig. Sweet and fleshy tannins are balanced by a perfectly integrated acidity, which gives the wine some freshness and emphasizes the presence of fruit and its ability to age. Smooth mouthfeel and exceptionally long finish.
