

La Spinona Barolo Cru Bergera

Azienda Agricola La Spinona

Italy - Piemonte - Barolo DOCG

The Beruttis bought 4 hectares in 1994 in the then relatively unknown zone of Novello which lies on the confines of Monforte and Barolo. A Sorì is an entirely south-facing vineyard. This Sorì lies at 230 meters. It is named for the great grandfather that started the Barbaresco vineyards. The vines are an average of 40 years old. Bergera comes from the mid part of the vineyard and is dedicated to Pietro's grandfather who started the estate.

The wine shows a brilliant deep ruby red with garnet reflections. Rich fruity bouquet with hints of cherries, violets liquorice and mint. Good structure with full, cherry-ripe flavors. The tannins are gentle and the spice subtle. It is an elegant wine of great finesse and drinkability.

Starting with the 2017 vintage, the name of the wine has been changed from "Bergera" to "Bergera Pezzole" which is the full geographical name of the cru.
