

Le P'tit Paysan Chardonnay Jack's Hill

Le P'tit Paysan (I. Brand)

United States - California - Monterey

The wine is produced predominantly from a few vineyards at the base of Jack's Hill, planted on the distinct iron oxide granite that dominates the east side of the Salinas Valley, directly east of Sleepy Hollow North. Clone 4 and 76 on 101-14 and 3309 rootstock, 35-year-old Wente clone on unknown rootstock (nobody remembers what it is). Also blended with small lots of Chardonnay clone 17 (also Wente) from the northern Santa Lucia Highlands, Italian clone Chardonnay from the granitic sands of Arroyo Seco, and 42 year old shot Wente clone off calcium rich alluvium. All cool to cold climate. The wines is bright, crisp and clean with orchard fruit giving way to an intense minerality.
