

Manda Huevos Tinto Parcela Caña Andrea

El Escoces Volante

Spain - Aragon

MANDA HUEVOS - Nowadays a vulgarism in Spanish born out of frustration meaning 'I can't believe it', 'get out of here' etc , but actually originating from the latin Mandat Opus meaning you are obliged to do something out of necessity.

The wine reveals an intense red color with garnet reflections, a complex nose of floral aromas, ripe red fruits and liquorice with mineral and balsamic notes, aromatic herb and peppery nuances. On the palate it is long and persistent, well-balanced with juicy tannins, a remarkable fruity expression. A lovely complexity!

Specifications

Wine Type	Red
Varietals	90% Garnacha, Moristel, Bobal, Garnacha Blanca
Age of Vines	50 to 111 years old
Agricultural Practices	Sustainable
Soil type	limestone, pebble stones and red clay
Vinification	Open top fermenter with punch downs only for gentle extraction, malolactic fermentation partly on skins before pressing to a combination of 4 flextank eggs of 875 liters. Aged for 13 months sur lie before assemblage in concrete before bottling.
Production	400 (9-liter cases)
Pairings	oily fish (high quality tuna), paprika based dishes, duck, game

Reviews and News

2017 Manda Huevos Tinto Parcela Caña Andrea - 94 PTS - WA