

Xavier Vignon Ventoux Rouge

Xavier Vignon Vins

France - Rhone Valley - Ventoux AOC

Deep dark ruby color with crimson reflects, the wine offers on the nose some hints of black fruits, Provencal spices and garrigue. The mouth is ample with a great freshness yet some concentration. Medium finish with hints of red and black fruits.

Specifications
Appellation	Ventoux AOC
Wine Type	Red
Varietals	60% Grenache and 40% Syrah
Age of Vines	Average 50 years
Agricultural Practices	Sustainable
Soil type	76 parcels all across the Ventoux and in the Dentelles area, mostly in altitude (250-400 meters).
Vinification	Most of the time, Ventoux offers superb climatic conditions especially in the higher altitude parcels. In 2016 for instance, grapes were harvested in a perfect sanitary state. Both technological and polyphenolic ripeness were close to perfect. Some grapes (Grenache & Syrah) are co-fermented for more complexity. A small batch of extremely old Syrah has been aged in barrel. The rest of the blend was aged in concrete to preserve the fruit purity.
Production	2,000 (9-liter cases)
Pairings	Spicy Pork ribs - Satay chicken skewers - Valencian style Paella - Steamed sea eel with black soya and garlic
